Malaysia	Kuala Lumpur	High Commission	www.malaysia.highcommission.gov.au	ANZAC DAY 2011 - DAWN SERVICE 6.30AM, MONDAY, 25 APRIL AT THE CHERAS ROAD CHRISTIAN CEMETERY KUALA LUMPUR ANZAC Day marks the anniversary of the first major military action fought by Australian and New Zealand forces during the First World War. On 25 April 1915, young Australians and New Zealanders waded ashore at Gallipoli and began seven months of intense combat that marked the arrival of two young nations on the world stage. On Monday 25 April 2011 the New Zealand High Commissioner, Mr David Pine, will host a Commemorative Dawn Service at the Military Annex of the Cheras Road Christian Cemetery in Kuala Lumpur. The Service is open to members of the public and those attending are requested to arrive by 6.15 am for the service to commence at 6.30 am. Following the Service, guests will be invited to the New Zealand High Commissioner's Residence at 15 Jalan Langgak Golf for the traditional 'gunfire' breakfast. Those attending are advised that at that time of the day it will be dark and mosquitoes are likely to be present. Guests are advised to apply mosquito repellent and carry a small torch. Dress for the occasion will be lounge suit, smart attire or ceremonial uniform, with medals. Members of the public who are interested in attending the breakfast following the Service are requested to advise the New Zealand High Commission on (603) 2078 2533 (ext 100 or 105) or email cathie.muker@mfat.govt.nz or lili.hah@mfat.govt.nz Anzac Day Dawn Service, Sandakan Memorial Park Sandakan, Malaysia, Monday 25 April 2011, 5.30 am An Official Anzac Day Ceremony will be held at the Sandakan Memorial Park on Monday, 25 April 2011, with the service commencing at 5.30 am. Anzac Day gives the opportunity for Australian and New Zealanders to remember the brave men and women of our Defence Forces. We remember particularly those who have lost their lives making the ultimate sacrifice for their countries. The Sandakan Memorial Park is located on the site of the original Sandakan POW Camp. Papua New Guinea	Port Moresby	High Commission	www.png.highcommission.gov.au	ANZAC Day Dawn Service Monday, 25 April, 2011 Each year thousands of Australians gather at Anzac Day services around the world to pay tribute to Australia's past and present servicemen and women. It is an important day for all Australians. ANZAC Day celebrations will be held on Monday, April 25 2011, at various locations throughout PNG. The two major ceremonies are conducted at Bomana War Cemetery and the Isurava Memorial. Dawn Services will be held at the following War Memorials, and all will be attended by Australian Defence Staff: Bomana War Cemetery, Port Moresby; Isurava Memorial, Isurava; Lae War Cemetery, Lae; Coastwatchers Memorial, Madang; Bita Paka War Cemetery, Rabaul; San Remo Memorial, Kimbe; Surrender Memorial Cape, Wewak; Bomana War Cemetery The main Anzac Day ceremony will be conducted at the Bomana War Cemetery in Port Moresby. The ceremony is coordinated by the Port Moresby Returned and Services League (POM RSL) Club, and strongly supported by the Australian High Commission, Australian Defence Staff and the Papua New Guinea Defence Force. With a total of 3,351 Australian burials, no other war cemetery in the world contains more Australian war dead. It is a special place for all Australians and a fitting place to remember those Australian servicemen and women who have paid the ultimate sacrifice for their country. A large attendance is expected and your participation is welcomed. Isurava Memorial The Isurava Memorial commemorates Australians, Papuans and New Guineans and those who fought in, or supported the battle over the Kokoda Track in 1942. The Service is organised by the Australian High Commission and, because of the Memorial's remote location, can usually only be attended by those trekking the Kokoda Track at the time. As in previous years, participation in the Service by a small number of trekkers is encouraged.
Philippines	Manila	Embassy	www.philippines.embassy.gov.au	Anzac Day 2011 The Australian and New Zealand embassies will again jointly host the Anzac Day commemoration in Manila. This will be held on Monday 25 April at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier (Libingan ng mga Bayani) in Fort Bonifacio, Taguig City, Manila, starting at 5:30 am (click here for the map). The commemoration provides an opportunity for reverent reflection on the 'Spirit of Anzac' epitomised during the Gallipoli campaign, which is so much a part of the ethos and heritage of both Australia and New Zealand. The service will honour the sacrifice of those Australians and New Zealanders who lost their lives in time of war and in the cause of peace. The Anzac Day ceremony is attended mostly by the Australian and New Zealand communities, but is open to anyone else who wishes to remember the fallen of those two countries. Anyone attending the event may lay a wreath during the ceremony. This is normally done by organisations with a particular association with Australia or New Zealand. There is no obligation to lay a wreath but anyone is welcome to do so. People wishing to lay a wreath should make their own arrangements — a range of wreaths suitable for Anzac Day are available from Jamaica's Floral Design (telephone 843 5821 or 844 7676). People attending are encouraged to wear medals. Personal medals should be worn on the left breast; medals of family members should be worn on the right breast. If you are attending the commemoration please arrive by 5:15 am to allow a prompt start. A 'gunfire breakfast' will be available following the ceremony. The Returned and Services League Australia-Angeles City Sub Branch will mark ANZAC Day with a Remembrance Service at Clark War Cemetery, Clark Special Economic Zone in Angeles City, Pampanga at 7:00am.
